Present: Susan Smith, Chairman, Thomas Rice, Vice Chair, and James Smith, Member. Also present Denise Delannoy, Administrative Assistant.

It being after 9:00am, the meeting being properly posted, duly called and a quorum being present, Chairman Susan Smith called the meeting to order.

Old Business -

Housing Complaints – Mr. Rice advised the Board that he is still working with the housing complaints, and plans to ask the property owners to the Board meeting on 1/15/2009 to address the uncompleted Orders to Correct.

New Business – for Cumberland Farms, Rick Lauder & Virginia Jawoski and for CVS, Kevin McGillicutty were asked to today's meeting to discuss the failure of a tobacco compliance check. The Board discussed the company's employee training programs regarding the sale of tobacco products with the representatives. Training assistance was offered through Antoinette Raymond, Director of the Blackstone Valley Youth Tobacco Prevention Program. The representatives of Cumberland Farms and CVS were given a copy of the newly implemented, Board of Health Article XVIII Tobacco Access to Minors Control Regulation, changes to the regulation were discussed.

Davis Heights Subdivision – Steve Kelley, Northern Development and Rick Goodrow, Consultant were in attendance to discuss the lack of as-built plans for several of the lots. Mr. Goodrow provided as-built plans for some of the lots and, following discussion, retrieved some plans to be reworked in order to be in compliance with governing regulations.
