- * In an emergency, a public body shall post notice as soon as reasonably possible prior to a meeting
- * Notice must include date, time and place of meeting

- * Public bodies are encouraged to update the notice when aware of new topic within the 48 hour period before the meeting
- * Chairs should not post notices so far in advance that there is a high likelihood that new topics will arise, unless the chair updates the notice with any such new topics 48 hours in advance of the meeting
