- * Meeting Postings:
Except in an emergency, a public body must post notice of a meeting at least 48 hours in advance, excluding Sunday's and legal holidays, except in emergencies.
"Emergency" is a sudden, generally unexpected occurrence or set of circumstances demanding
In an emergency, a public body shall post notice as soon as reasonably possible prior to the meeting.
- * Notice must include date, time and place of meeting.
- * Must include listing of topics the chair reasonably anticipates will be discussed
- * Topics must give enough specificity so that the public will understand what will be discussed
- * Public bodies are encouraged to update the notice when aware of new topics within the 48 hour period
- * Chairs should not post notices so far in advance that there is a high likelihood that new topics will arise
- * updates the notice with any such new topics 48 hours in advance
